Idox Announces Appointment of Head of Professional Services

Appointment of Matthew Salter, Head of Professional Services

Idox plc (AIM: IDOX), a leading supplier of specialist information management software and solutions to the public and asset-intensive sectors, is pleased to announce the appointment of Matthew Salter as Head of Professional Services, a senior management, non-Board role.

This newly created role will lead transformation and strategic change across the Group's recently consolidated professional services teams and support our colleagues to continue to provide excellence within our customer services.

With a wealth of knowledge of the sector, Matthew joins Idox having spent the past four years as Delivery Director at Capita Group plc, where he helped shape and drive supporting services for key products. With proven expertise in cloud delivery and business growth, having worked with Civica, both in the UK and Australia, coupled with previous leadership and senior roles at Northgate, Matthew's industry experience will further strengthen the professional services teams within Idox Software.

David Meaden, Chief Executive Officer of Idox said:

"As we continue to develop our strategy and strengthen our business, it is important to add new experience and capabilities to our senior management team and I am therefore pleased to welcome Matthew to Idox. His knowledge and expertise of our industry represents a key appointment for us as well as a final step in completing the reinvigoration of both the Idox Board and senior management team, a transition that we initiated two years ago."
